

Transcendence / Spiritual Needs

Many threads in the reading and topic this week :) -- just noticing a funny parallel with the time session:
<http://wiki.playasbeing.org/index.ph...> Bleu Oleander

I'm also of the camp that doesn't totally believe that there's a transcendent consciousness or reality that is separate from the ordinary. But the list of needs in Bleu's report doesn't explicitly list "spiritual" needs either, and so maybe there's a reason why we keep wondering if we ought to look somewhere else for satisfaction.
