

What is Reality?

September 1, 2008 in Wisdom

The nature of reality is this: It is hidden, and it is hidden, and it is hidden.

–Rumi

If you want what visible reality
can give, you're an employee.
If you want the unseen world,
you're not living your truth.
Both wishes are foolish,
but you'll be forgiven for forgetting that what you really want is love's confusing joy.
